Berwick Classic 2025 – Mileage Check Route

This route of about 3.7 miles will give you the opportunity to check your trip-meter against the organisers' measurements and either make an adjustment or calculate a correction factor you can use throughout the event.

Measurements were made (here and throughout the event) by driving in the left half of the road using the 'racing line' within that half when appropriate.

Please drive quietly and inconspicuously when travelling this anticlockwise route which includes measurement points at clear landmarks.

Leave Berwick on the A698 and turn left onto yellow road at 953 500
